Dear Miriam Hupfield

Thank you for returning my phone call from Friday.

I understand that Adrian is happy with his autonomous education and likewise you and your husband are also.

You are aware of the support which the LA is wishing to exercise i.e. an initial review of progress so far with a member of the EHE team so that the Local Authority can be satisfied that Adrian is receiving a suitable education – you have declined this stating that it's not something Adrian requires. A request from me for examples of Adrian's work which demonstrates his interests and achievements – again you state that this is not something which Adrian would want to consider.

You confirmed that you are happy with the current arrangement and should you require assistance you will get in touch; given the concerns raised by _____ to social services the safeguarding of Adrian will be looked into by them.

Please can you confirm that this is a true resume of our discussion?

Yours sincerely

Olaf Hindmarsh
